

Privacy Policy

Patent Fusion LLC will perform all work product in the United States unless otherwise requested or approved by the customer.

Patent Fusion LLC will not sell your company or confidential information to third parties. All information will remain confidential and will be returned to the customer upon request. We shall retain company information and copies of the work product for the sole purposes of usual and customary business practices and record keeping.

Patent Fusion LLC will not share your information with third parties (e.g., database providers, technical experts, etc.) except for the sole purpose of completing the request.

Patent Fusion LLC may on occasion use US-based subcontractors to complete customer requests requiring specific technical expertise or to meet specific deadlines (e.g., invalidity work support), where no confidential client information is to be shared.

Confidential Information shall not include any information which is publicly known or is independently developed by the Patent Fusion LLC.

Thank you for visiting our web site.